The wireframe is contained within a large rectangular border. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a 'Button' on the left, a 'Logo' in the center, and 'Search-bar', 'Message', and 'Profile' on the right. Below this is a 'Navigation-Bar' with several segments. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column features a large 'PICTURE' placeholder, followed by a text block with horizontal lines, and a 'Button' at the bottom right. The middle column contains three smaller 'PICTURE' placeholders, each followed by a text block and a 'Button'. The right column has another large 'PICTURE' placeholder, followed by a text block, and a 'Button' at the bottom right. Below the main content area, there are two vertical sections. The left section contains five identical article cards, each with a text block and a 'Button'. The right section contains two sections: 'Popular Articles List' and 'Reading List', each with three article cards. At the bottom right, there is a 'Sub-navigation' bar with two segments.
